Yusuf Hamied Theatre

Yusuf Hamied Centre, Ground floor

The theatre is located in New Court in the Yusuf Hamied Centre. The building was formally known as the Lasdun building as it was designed by architect Sir Denys Lasdun in the early 1960s and fully refurbished in 2009. The refurbishment was made possible thanks to the generosity of The Yusuf and Farida Hamied Foundation. Yusuf Hamied is an Honorary Fellow of Christ's College.

Plumb Auditorium

(2nd floor)

The Auditorium was originally built as the Council Chamber of the former County Hall, acquired by the College in 1983. The room was named in honour of Sir John Plumb, FBA (1911-2001), eminent scholar, Professor of Modern English History, Fellow of Christ's (1946-1978), and Master (1978-1982). During the Second World War he worked as an analyst on the ULTRA signals intelligence operation at Bletchley Park. Plumb was a prolific writer, and a major authority on the Stuart and Georgian periods of English history.

Sosnow Room (2nd floor)

Alternative room layout

The Room was named in 1987 in memory of Norman Sosnow, who matriculated in 1962 and graduated in 1965. Tragically he lost his life in an aircraft accident in 1967 at the age of 23.

The Room also commemorates the work and generosity given to Christ's College by his father, Eric Sosnow. Born in Poland, he came to London in 1934 as a research assistant at the London School of Economics. In 1968 Eric Sosnow and his wife sought to keep alive the memory of their son in the College which he loved by endowing the Norman Sosnow Travel Scholarships.

Eric Sosnow was a Fellow-Commoner from 1982 until his death in 1987.
